TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction: Architecture as Culture Medium 1
  Architecture 4
  Culture 5
  Normality and Deinstitutionalization 6
    Ordinary Architecture, Building Types 7
    Architecture as Culture, Architecture as Art 8
  Structure of the Book and Presentation of Ideas 10

PART 1: THEORETICAL STRUCTURE 13

Chapter 1: Architecture Communicating Culture 13
  Experiencing Buildings 15
  The Cultural Setting 17
  Cultural Communication and Architectural Form 18
  Communication and Determinism 19
  Architecture as Communicator of Cultural Roles 20
  The Silent Messages in Architecture 21
  Architecture as a Vehicle for Cultural Analysis of Western Society 22
  Architecture & Human Identity: Development of Schemata 23
  Building Types as Schemata 24
  Classification & Categorization of Environments 26
  Basic Types: Etic and Emic Perspectives 27

Chapter 2: Conscious Cultural Change & Architectural Reception Theory 33
  Spatial Perception & Transformation 36
  Transformation of Cultural Schemata 37
  Associative and Structural Thinking 38
  Culture as Mediator between the Conscious and the Unconscious 39
  Architecture & Cultural Change 40
  Challenging Cultural Patterns 42
  Culture, Criticism & Politics 43
  Etic and Emic Perspectives in Architectural Practice 43
  Architects’ Understanding & Knowledge of Culture 45
  Cultural Development and the Role of the Avant Garde 48
  Argument for an Architectural Reception Theory 50
  Applying an Architectural Reception Theory 53
Chapter 3: Conscious Cultural Changes & Normalization  59
Conscious Cultural Change  61
Normalization as Conscious Cultural Change  62
Public and Private Realms  64
Polarity  65
Home and Institution  66
Home  68
Institution  73
De conceiving the Institutional Building  75
Key Research Questions  77

PART II: ANALYSIS  81

Chapter 4: Exploring Institution and Home as Cultural Categories for Housing  81
Phase 1: Design Guidelines for Deinstitutionalization /Cultural Stereotypes  84
Phase 2: Exploring Institutionality and Homeliness in Architecture  88
Phase 3: Study of 20 Group Homes  97
Association between Architecture & Behavior, Architecture Inventory  97
Measure, Consistency in Evaluating Images of Housing, Limitation of  97
Images to Account for Architectural Qualities  97
Conclusions about the Findings  97

Chapter 5: Stereotyped Conceptions of Institution and Home  101
Design Principles Versus Stereotypes  108
Description of Context and Site  109
Building Organization  112
Rooms and Spaces  116
Implications of the Comparison  122

Chapter 6: Exploring Institution and Home as Cultural Categories for Housing  125
Architectural Character: Semantics of the Living Room  127
The Role of Architectural Attributes in Communication  127
The Values Manifest by Architectural Features  129
Dignity & Economics  130
Control & Community  131
Maintenance & Hygiene  132
Identity & Order  132
Meaning of the Living Room - Architectural Features  133
Architectural Elements & The Meaning of Institution & Home  135
Placement and Configuration  136
Materials  139
Systems & Equipment  141
Furniture - Upholstered Seating, Non upholstered Seating, Other Furniture,  143
General Arrangement & Style, Density  143
Decoration  146
Inventory Measures & The Institution Home Continuum  147
Continuation on CD ROM

Appendix 2: Phase 1 Design Principles
- Appendix 2-A Robinson/Emmons/Graff Architectural Checklist 271
- Appendix 2-B Design Principles: Ratings of Drawings Pairs 277

Appendix 3: Phase 2 Evolution of Descriptive & Evaluative Architectural Measures
- Appendix 3-A Robinson/Ingenmey/Graff/Thompson 283
- Living Room Measure 283
- Appendix 3-B Institution Preliminary Architectural Inventory 385
- Appendix 3-C Graphic Analysis of Preliminary Inventory Variables (Selected Living Room Measures) 295
- Appendix 3-D Institution - Home Assessment Measure for Living Rooms 302
- Appendix 3-E Architectural Inventory Measure (AIM) - Sample Pages 306

Appendix 4: Photographs & Ratings from Phase 2 Research
- Appendix 4-A List of Photographs & Ratings from Phase 2 Research 319
- Appendix 4-B Photographs Used in Phase 2 Research 325

Appendix 5: Selected Examples of Building Types:
- Plans, Elevations & Syntax Diagrams 337
  - Appendix 5-A List of Drawings, Diagrams & Charts 339
  - Appendix 5-B Comparative Drawings of Building Type Exemplars 340
  - Appendix 5-C Dormitory 345
  - Appendix 5-D Group Home 349
  - Appendix 5-E Hospital 353
  - Appendix 5-F Mid-Highrise Apartment Building 357
  - Appendix 5-G Nursing Home 361
  - Appendix 5-H Public Housing (Townhouse) 365
  - Appendix 5-I Single Family House 367
  - Appendix 5-J Walk-Up Apartment Building 370

Curriculum Vitae
- 375